STEWARDSHIP HIGHLIGHTS In spite of the long and difficult winter, there have been many opportunities for activities undertake all over Falmouth. T3C and our volunteers to get out on the land. The following is a brief description of activities undertaken on conservation lands voluntaer Work Days with Americarys at the Dupes Parcel (Lanuary 13 & 27).

1004 solunteer hours went into reclaiming an old field and denting around the food and tenting around the food and tenting around the research of these areas is interesting from the historical and cultural perspective, but also very valuable in terms of hisban, the state of the declare in Massachments. And the food of the property of the declare in Massachments, a term in Match, WIII Chiffee volunteered use of the Taylor of the Massachments. of his brush mower to finish the job.

Volunteer Work Day with Americarys at the Communicated Reservation (January 17). Nineem Americary numbers and six TSC, volunteer focused or grandand bright recommon and the removal and huming of innaise species. The DPW parks division that the water tank, and the Communicated the water tank and the Communicated Parish Secusion instead the expair of the fence at the Stark Rosal parking area.

Winter Teal Coen, Volunteers from TSCs I tail Coew, led by Board Treasurer Gary Walter, cleared miles of trails on conservation lands throughout Falmouth this part winter. The work focused on trails at the following properties: Hanson-Powell Parcel, Donald Wholden Preserve, Durse Parcel, Moraine Trail, Beebe Woods, and Parcel, Moraine Trail, Beebe Woods, and

IMPORTANT DATES

Volunteer Work Day at Garland & Lakeview Ave. Parcels (March 29). 20

Race for Open Space...
Falmont Road Race Cycle The 900 Committee is gearing up to purrer tagin this summer with the Falmont Road Race in the Numbers for Notypotite program. The new till lake place on Smothey, Magust IT, and we are hoping to assemble a strong cann to run in support of out hard run. If you or anyone you know would like to mouth the strong the strong the strong the constrong the strong th

Snacks and desserts will begin the evening at 630; the meeting will start promptly at 7:15. We encourage members and friends

T3CTHANKS...

Annual Meeting, July 10; Mark your calculated The 20 Committees sumul meeting will be held or Thursday evening, July 10, at the Portuguese American Association of Falmouth's Noigugor Club, 57 Ashumor Road, Hardreille, just off Sandwich Road.

Visi www.300committee.org and scroll down the home page to find the Road Race blurb. Links to the registration and pledge forms are provided. totaled more than $14,000.

run the 7.1-mile scenic course from Woods Hole to Falmouth Heights and is interested in raising money to help protect natural places in Falmouth, please let us know.

Annual Stewardship Meeting (February E). More than 40 sewardship woharear attended no omnet with TNC satif and board mombers, alean about normwide projects, presented by pies speaked. Chack Martinear, from the points Marine & Environmental Stewies boards Marine & Environmental Stewies bar Bourning it themedas and opness from Falmouth's own added lisable beads. Spring 2014 Moraine Trail Hike w/ AMC (April 19). This hiking adventure, led by John Gould, was the reward for all the manual labor that keeps the trails open! 30 hikes enjoyed the 93-mile trek south from Route 151 to Goodwill Park. Graduate students in the WHOL/MIT Joint Program pulled invasive plants during a spring work day at Two Ponds Conservation Area.

Volunteer Work Day with WHOL/MIT students at Two Fonds Conservation Area (April 12). On a gorgeous, surm day, this group of graduate students worked hard to remove investores species at writous locations around this new conservation area. Thanks to Hamilton Tree & Landseape for chipping and hauling away the debris! volunteers spent a morning working to remove invasive species, especially English

- ◆ Arielle from Susan Wigkey and Jay Burnett ◆ Lilly & Earl Biscoe from Eloise Biscoe ◆ Arthur I. Doyle from Rita L. Doyle ◆ Bism M. Haggerty from Walter Haggerty
- Landi Landrau from Nancy Michaud
- ☑ Daniel tapest from From & Sue Smith
   ☑ Bennie Meddaber from Partical Meddaben
   ☑ Bennie Meddaber from Partical Meddaben
   ☑ Bennie Meddaber from Christiane C. Collen, Edward & Smith Hughes ☑ Med B. Porlandchik from Elaine Porlandchik ☑ Berth Schwarzman from Wallenie & Daniel Sank, Tom & Ann Sonne ☑ Sank Spreferma from Chat & Plum Polleni ☑ Banhara L. Sonza from Gregory Soura
   ☑ Banhara L. Sonza from Gregory Soura

- ◆ The Yelfers from Yuraka & Sally, likhinka ◆ Blaine Sipp from Drock & Marcy Jahin ◆ Rate Heey'l Richt from Joseph Tlakhin

  ◆ Carekand's & Belend S. With fir and Blain Brewson ◆ Carekand's & Belend S. With from Blain Sonyinka ◆ Satharine Gayford Wither from Patricia Shoyinka ◆ Jane Whipple from Virginia Patterson

GIFTS IN HONOR OF....

- ◆ Chris Cowan & Allam Gordon from Stephen Ford ♦ Statume Goodman Half sted from Elect Libleston & Statames Lip ♦ Isomand Johnson from Milson & Statum Williamson ♦ Isomad Johnson 7.79 bit Briday from Blob & Mary Smith ♦ Patter Kroll from George & Marjoric Yors
- ▼ Vicky Lowell from Nawrie Meige-Brown & David Brown ▼ Day Mount from Jeff Williams & Rebecca Upton
  ▼ Larry Noonan of Silver Beach from Paul & Elizabeth Hughes
  ▼ Larry Noonan of Silver Beach from Paul & Elizabeth Hughes

...The Falmouth Fund of The Cape Cod Foundation for its important grant awarded in March that supports our expanded Stewardship Coordinator position.

NON-PROFIT
PRS RT STD
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
FALMOUTH, MA
02540 PERMIT #77

THE TO COMMUNICATION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PR

LAND

The 157 Locust Street he 300Committee

Falmouth, MA 02540-2658

YOUR ESTATE PLANNING CONSIDER LAND PRESERVATION IN

Through the years, several friends of T3C have included our land trust in their wills or trusts. These planned gifts are indispensable to the future of T3C and to protected lands in our correcessment.

Clerk
Richard E. Payne

Vice President Thomas A. Stone

President Leonard W. Johnso

Treasurer

Gary B. Walker

Discenses

Practs Ceratemato

Michael A. Duffinery

Sassame Goodman Hallster

Emity Reliabed re

Victoria H. Laucell

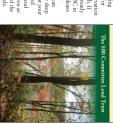

Day O. Mount

Day O. Mount

Day O. Mount

Anne-Marie Ranfold

Plan your legacy to have an impact on the future of the community you love. Consider what Falmouth's natural places and open spaces mean to you.

The 300 Committee is a private, non-profit had trust dedicated to preserving natural places in Entomoth for everyone to enjoy now add in the years to come. Since 1986, The 300 Committee has taken a lead role to acquire treasured openspace for consensation, recreation and water protection. In the last 29 years, more than 2,300 acres have been germanearily protected through

157 Locust Street Falmouth, MA 02540-2658 (508) 540-0876 • fax (508) 457-6406 www.300committee.org

INTRODUCING...TWO PONDS CONSERVATION AREA

Street. The handicapped-accessible pathways and braches on the site are open to the public; four parking places for visitors to the conservation area are designated at the northern end of the Arial Woodbriar Place parking lot.

Tax Exempt # 22-2659529

Director of Program Ser Lucy Helfrich

ministrator Jessica Whritenour Gregory Souza Virginia Valiela

Stewardship Coordinator
Alexander Etkind

spring 2014

In February, it was defaul. The 300 Committee became the course of 14.73 acres of land off Cafford Street in Falmouth. Domated to 17.6 by Aria as a condition of the development permit for Aria Woodhur Place, the land is permanently protected with a conservation extraction held by the Compact of Cape Cod Conservation Trusts (The Compact of This praced is special for a number of reasons: it is beened within a state designated "protity halatin" are at: it includes an Atlantic white codus swamp; and it has lovely from age on both Jones Prod and Sale Paral beneech termine. Two brooks last its minutes from downtrown Emmouth and casaby toolked and accessible from Coffined and cashy stable and accessible from Coffined and cashy stable and accessible from Coffined In mid-April, WED/IAIT graduate students began temoving invasive specks in areas formed y manitand as golfrags recreasted and the property of the property of

F3C DEDICATES SPECIAL PLACES

is a small hidden genin ir PG, invertory of conservation lands. In 2008, B, Jean Thomas said this warm waterfoot let to PG. Thora song, "ensuring that he had on Eal Proudin East Talmonith would be protected hong after the was gone, Jean also domated, conservation restriction on the adjoint property which thouses the small cottage where she lived for many years. The parcel has a row entil that heals to a wide expanse of mush that provides a sweeping view across the pond. In December, a group of PG (fireds gathered to walk the trail and tremberly-from Thomas and the mother Edu Singhant Both losed this land, and a bends overlooking the water has been dedicated in their memory.

On April 27, T3C dedicated the River Bend

Conservation Area in memory of Beth Schwarzman, who died unespectedly in August 2012. Beth was a delicited and arrive member of TPG's board of directors, who championed our mission to preserve and of triends and fines of Beth 8 gathered together to remember Beth and her zest for kleas, people and the natural world, and to recognize her dynamic and invaluable efforts on behalf of protecting open space in Falmouth. River Bend trails.

"The River Bend Conservation Area is dedicated to the memory of Beth Schwarzman, a board member of The 500 Committee Land River Bend: Trust from 2005 to 2012. Beth's centraiste knowledge of natural history and goods go was marched by her passion for preserving natural areas such as this beautiful woodland. Beth expressed her passion through writing, mil mapping, leading walls and applying her tremendous energy to preserving open space. Beth envisioned a continuous green on order along the Coronnessen fliver. Biver Bend is a key element of this greenway."

After the ceremony, many people in attendano admired the new kiosk and took a walk on the

WINTER AND SPRING WALKS AND TALKS

T3Cs Outreach Committee has sponsored a full calendar of events since our last newsletter, reaching out to members and friends and Tunging in others new to our land Byan Nolan Suman from the University of Wyoming, Joan Walsh from Mass Andhou and Tim Boland from Pally Hill Each talk attracted cough folks to fill the season in be hum. Engert or get out and dem something new they enjoyed the presentations and asked probing questions at the end of each talk.

The Wirner Syring Speaker Series, ledd at the Falmount Hanarical Society Hallers Hanarical Society Hallers Barn, offered a there are major for pessenters and rupis. These informative talks angled from the state of Massechnesets bird populations, to rese and oranging wildlife, climine change effects do cummend in the self-immens of the We are grateful to our dedikanted Ourseach volunteers who organized the series. For the first time since its interption in 2005, the series was ore sponsored in its entirety by Sult Pand Areas Bird Saneturies. While this collaboration surely helped attract audience members, it also served to remind us that T3C and SPABS share a common goal: the preservation of important natural

A special ollaboration continues between TSC and In fee, Director of Mass Andabon's Long Pasture Wildlife Sarcaray; TSC combined with In on two walks of Ashamer Holly Wildlife Sarcaray in Fairmouth's winter with the Market of the Company and a vernal pool walk fortholding a look at the annual Salarandor migration in law March Borth

Winter and spring nature walks activities were very well attended and we look forward to more joint efforts ahead!

cowend alto diground, from the Moonaks/Quadher River and the Margaret Dourt Preserve in Waquot to the Roskovice purcel in North Falmouth, from the Flav Port and Lower Commessent Camberry Bags in Hardreille to Black Boach on Buzzards Bay. y to River Bend Conservation Area, Collins Woodor, Breivogel Ponds, Long Pond and Peresson Farm. Special thanks go to Melly Cornell and Aex Lancaster for sharting their experise and love of Falmouth's many conservation On the docket as we go to press are a l'amily Passport Walk at the Mart Soura Conservation Area, scheduled for Saureday, May 17 from 1 to 3:00 PM, and a Pedal to Parcels bispelling overn Saurday, May 31, 10 AM to 2 PM to snowcase conservation parcels along the Shining Sea Bikeway.

table for this spring; a new team of students will build this kiosk that will replace the existing one behind T3C's office adjacent to the third kiosk is on the drawing

LOCAL STUDENTS CONTRIBUTE TO OPEN SPACE

When Bob Perus teacher of 8th grad Engineering at the Lawrence School marghed out to The 300 Committee Inst full asking if there was a design and build project that he and his activative to the Admings of the skills, energy and enhancement of the skills, energy and enhancement of the skills, energy and enhancement of the skills, energy and grids, have hard a hard in building two kinds for TD-Conservation hards at Nove Boal Conservation Acut and at the tree of Conservation Acut and at the tree of Conservation and the skills and the skills of t

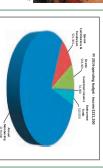

We were delighted to receive thinding for the materials for the Rover Boad look from the Kover Boad look from the Kover Boad look from the Cocumescent From Foundation. This group is involved with the Hends of the Silo and will share the kinds rape entit TGC, posting information about the agricultural lineary of the area and the historical importance of the recently sensor decramits also Both TGC and the Friends of Erlmonth Bickeway also our fraunce School artherns held an Ecorbon timediates or noise the Lavrence School artherns held an Ecorbon timediates or noise the Weather-proof and made to last, these kicokis will enable T3C to expand its outreach and education about individual conservation parcels and the importance of protecting land in Falmouth.

FY 2014 AT A GLANCE

T3C'S CONSERVATION HOLDINGS (AS OF MAY 1, 2014)

475 acres... 167 acres... permanently protected by 2,000 acres... under active stewardship by T3C conservation restriction (CR)

Pending for 2014:

3 parcels...land donation and new CRs

After a long, cold winner, November 10 seems like a long time ago, but remembering the Teaticker Park dedication and official v opening iditis happy memories for many people close to The 30 Committee and the Teaticket Civic Association. picnic growe and outdoor classroom. These elements are slated for Phases 2 and 3 which will begin later this spring. Some of our youngest visitors onlyed a Scavenger Hunt challenge led by T3C volumeer Molly were encouraged to get to know the property, walk ing along the handicapped-accessible park entry paths and the grassy meadow path, and exploring the areas of the park designated for the future walking pathways, boardwalk, observation platform, Phase 1 of the Teaticket Park creation was newly completed; the final details included the mowing of the Meadow Path in preciew of Phase 2 and the installation of the bike racks and dedication plaques on the park benches. The day itself was cool and cloudy with a steady breeze blowing across the open expanse of the parks ready? It arcs. But at 2 PM, a cross of more than 100 gathered at the edge of the prass sent the portable kevent. As if on cue, the sam broke through the clouds, casting, a golden glow over the safe has the through could be a state the proceedings. park and the proceedings.

CELEBRATES COMMUNITY EFFORT

TEATICKET PARK OPENING FEATURES COMPLETED STREETSCAPE

During a three-hour Open House, visitors

The dedication ceremony got underway with musical selections performed by members of the a capella group, Notescape. This was a fun and festive beginning that set a celebratory tone to the event. Short speeches were delivered by Tic President Learnad Johnson, Administrant Passica Witterour and board mombers Mile Duffuny and Vicky Lovell. Wicky was foundered the land trust in 1883. Many Plat Plynn of the Falmounth Board of Selectmen said at few words, as did Stame Representatives I'm Madden and David Virari Vicinis parents are Bill and Doma Wefan, the convers of the Driving Romge who sold the land to Tic. Checy Williams, President off the Tenticket Civic Association, spoke about the importance of this copyen space to the vallage of Tearlicket. The festivities chosed with a ribbon-cutting by Tic Leonard Johnson and Tenticket Association members Many the Latle and Marg Bishop. The cross of select around It was a prod aday for Tive 200 Committees, for Tearlicket and indeed for all around It was a prod aday for Tive 200

Committees, for Tearlicket and indeed of red il

